A stone's throw from all you need.

Nestled between Pakenham and the Latrobe Valley, Drouin reflects the best of both worlds. Its rich farming history defines its character, yet it is the town's integral role in Melbourne's flourishing south-east that will write its next chapter. A chapter now enriched by The Reserve.

Drouin, renowned for its parks and reserves abundant in giant trees, enjoys a thriving café culture, a vibrant arts & galleries vibe and a blossoming wine industry, with Ripplebrook Winery and Brandy Creek Estate popular with locals and visitors alike.

The Reserve is conveniently located to enjoy all that the area offers, including local schools, modern shopping centres and local attractions.
